1. Key Principles and Objectives

All members must observe the Laws of the Game, the FFV Constitution, Regulations, Rules of Competition, Statutes and Regulations, By-Laws and Policies and ensure that the game of football is played competitively and fairly in accordance with principles of true sportsmanship and in accordance with these Laws.

2. Fines and Penalties

All members will be personally liable for any disciplinary fines incurred by the Club on their behalf. This includes yellow and red cards and any other FFV imposed penalties for disciplinary misconduct. No member will be permitted to play until the Club has been reimbursed for the cost of the fine and the resulting suspension (if any) has been served.

3. FFV Regulations

The relevant FFV Regulation is the:

- Grievance Disciplinary and Tribunal By-Law (FFV By-Law 11)

A copy of FFV By-Law 11 is available on the Club's website for the information and benefit of members. Players are able to contact the Discipline Department at FFV on 9474 1800 (ext 3) or at discipline@footballvictoria.com.au
